Two incongruous frame dwellings stand in close proximity on this farm. The main house, a north-facing bungalow, is joined by a two-story, two-bay building a few feet from its southwest corner. Two gabled frame tobacco barns stand east of the house.

The three-bay by two-bay main house includes a screened porch across the facade and a shed addition across the rear. Paired one over one windows light the house. A large shed dormer lights the north side of the loft. An interior brick chimney heats the north side.

The secondary dwelling's west end is heated by an interior brick stove-flue chimney. The north facade's entrance appears in the eastern bay.
